

1) The althlete stands approximately one meter from the net with the feeder on the other side positioned halfway between the service line and the net. Each althlete is given five attempts to hit a ball safely over the net. The feeder underhand fosses each ball to the althlete's forehand side. 2) The althlete scores 10 points for hitting into ithe backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlet scores five points for hitting into either service box 2) The althlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box 2) The althlete stands on or behind the baseline. The feeder, positioned halfway between the net and service line on the same side of the net, underhand tosses the ball so it bounces once before reaching the athlete's forehand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. 2) The althlete stands on or behind the baseline. The feeder, positioned halfway between the net and service line on the same side of the net, underhand tosses the ball so it bounces once before reaching the athlete's forehand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. 2) The althlete stands on or behind the baseline. The feeder, positioned halfway between the net and service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box. 3 Saltouti Lackhand Groundstroke 2) The athlete single five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct service was a serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. A ball landing in the correct service was a land to points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or falls to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault or falls to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault or falls to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault or falls to get the ball in the service box. A foot fau
1) The athlete stands approximately one meter from the net with the feeder on the other side positioned halfway between the service line and the net. Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a ball safely over the net. The feeder underhand tosses each ball to the athlete's forehand side. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box Substand Volley Same as forehand volley except feeder sends the balls to athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Substand Groundstroke 1) The athlete stands on or behind the baseline. The feeder, positioned halfway between the net and service line on the same side of the net, underhand tosses the ball so it bounces once before reaching the athlete's forehand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box. Substand Groundstroke Same as forehand groundstroke except the feeder sends the ball to the athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Substand Groundstroke Same as forehand groundstroke except the feeder sends the ball to the athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Substand Groundstroke one of the service box. A ball landing in the correct service box and the service box and the service box. A ball landing in the correct service of the service of the service box. A ball landing in the correct service of the service of the service box. A ball landing in the correct service of the service of the service box. A ball landing in the correct service of the service of the service box. A ball land at a point which is both halfway between the service box the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each athlete is given five attempts. Substand Substand Substand Substand Substand line and the net. Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a ball safely over the net. The feeder underhand tosses each ball to the athlete's forehand side. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlet scores five points for hitting into either service box. Substant Volley Same as forehand volley except feeder sends the balls to athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Perhand Groundstroke 1) The athlete stands on or behind the baseline. The feeder, positioned halfway between the net and service line on the same side or the net, underhand tosses the ball so it bounces once before reaching the athlete's forehand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into either service box. Substant Groundstroke Same as forehand groundstroke except the feeder sends the ball to the athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Substant Groundstroke Same as forehand groundstroke except the feeder sends the ball to the athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Substant Groundstroke athlete is given five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct service box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Substant Substant 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Substant Substant 10 points A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete service mark	rehand Volley Substeal Subste	line and the net. Each ath	proximately one malete is given five a	neter from the attempts to hit	net with the feeder a ball safely over	on the other side po he net. The feeder u	ositioned halfway between anderhand tosses each l	en the service ball to the
Same as forehand volley except feeder sends the balls to athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtoral				ourt on or between	the baseline, service	e line and singles sidelir	es. The athlete
Same as forehand volley except feeder sends the balls to athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtored 1) The athlete stands on or behind the baseline. The feeder, positioned halfway between the net and service line on the same side of the net, underhand tosses the ball so it bounces once before reaching the athlete's forehand side. Each athlete is given five attempts 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box. Sackhand Groundstroke Same as forehand groundstroke except the feeder sends the ball to the athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtored Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct service box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Subtored 1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service in and end on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each boss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and singles sideline. The athlete me be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box			-				Subtotal
The athlete stands on or behind the baseline. The feeder, positioned halfway between the net and service line on the same side of the net, underhand tosses the ball so it bounces once before reaching the athlete's forehand side. Each athlete is given five attempts 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box. Subtonal ackhand Groundstroke Same as forehand groundstroke except the feeder sends the ball to the athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtonal Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct service box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault coccurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Subtonal Subtonal Subtonal Subtonal 1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service land net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each tos should land at a point which is both halfway between the service lens and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete me be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box	ckhand Volley
1) The athlete stands on or behind the baseline. The feeder, positioned halfway between the net and service line on the same side or the net, underhand tosses the ball so it bounces once before reaching the athlete's forehand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into either service box. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box. 3 Subnotal 2 Subnotal 2 Subnotal 3 Subnotal 3 Subnotal 4 Subnotal 5 Subnotal 6 Subnotal 7 Subnotal 7 Subnotal 7 Subnotal 7 Subnotal 8 Subnotal 9 Subnotal	Same as forehand volley	except feeder ser	nds the balls to	o athlete's backhar	id side. Each athlete	is given five attempts.
1) The athlete stands on or behind the baseline. The feeder, positioned halfway between the net and service line on the same side of the net, underhand tosses the ball so it bounces once before reaching the athlete's forehand side. Each athlete is given five attempts 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box. Subrotal Cackhand Groundstroke Same as forehand groundstroke except the feeder sends the ball to the athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subrotal Cerve - Deuce Court Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct servic box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Cerve - Advantage Court Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Cerve - Advantage Court 1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service land net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete me be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into either service box Subtoral Courter C][]-				Subtotal
2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box. Subtorul Subtorul Subtorul Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct service box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Subtorul Earve - Advantage Court Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtorul Subtorul	rehand Groundstrok	(e
Subtotal Cackhand Groundstroke Same as forehand groundstroke except the feeder sends the ball to the athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct servic box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Subtotal Every - Advantage Court Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Subtotal Iternating Groundstrokes with Movement 1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service and net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete me be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box
Same as forehand groundstroke except the feeder sends the ball to the athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct service box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A fool fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Subtotal Surve - Advantage Court Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Iternating Groundstrokes with Movement 1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service and net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete m be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box	The athlete scores 10 scores five points for hitti	points for hitting ing into either serv	into the backc vice box.	ourt on or between	the baseline, servic	e line and singles sideli	nes. The athlet
Same as forehand groundstroke except the feeder sends the ball to the athlete's backhand side. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct service box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Subtotal Exerve - Advantage Court Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Iternating Groundstrokes with Movement 1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service and net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete me be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box							Subtotal
Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct service box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Subtotal Surve - Advantage Court Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Iternating Groundstrokes with Movement 1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service I and net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete m be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box Subtotal	ckhand Groundstro	ke Earve - Deuce Court Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct service box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Subtotal Perve - Advantage Court Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Iternating Groundstrokes with Movement 1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service I and net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete m be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box Subtotal	Same as forehand groun	dstroke except the	e feeder sends	s the ball to the ath	lete's backhand side	e. Each athlete is given	five attempts.
Each athlete is given five attempts to hit a legal serve from the right court to the deuce service box. A ball landing in the correct service box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Subtotal Perve - Advantage Court Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Iternating Groundstrokes with Movement 1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service I and net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete mbe allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box Subtotal							Subtotal box will count 10 points. A zero (0) score is recorded if the athlete commits a foot fault or fails to get the ball in the service box. A foot fault occurs when the athlete steps on or over the baseline or the imaginary extensions of the center mark or sideline. Subtotal Erve - Advantage Court Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Iternating Groundstrokes with Movement 1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service I and net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete m be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box Subtotal	rve - Deuce Court
Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Subtotal	box will count 10 points.	A zero (0) score is	s recorded if the	ne athlete commits	a foot fault or fails to	get the ball in the serv	e correct servic ice box. A foot
Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Subtotal							Subtotal
Same as serve to deuce court but from the left court to the advantage service box. Each athlete is given five attempts. Subtotal Subtotal	rve - Advantage Cou	urt
Iternating Groundstrokes with Movement 1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service land net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete m be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box Subtotal	Same as serve to deuce	court but from the	e left court to t	he advantage serv	ice box. Each athlet	e is given five attempts.
1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service I and net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete m be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box Subtotal							Subtotal
1) The athlete is positioned at the center service mark on or behind the baseline. The feeder, standing halfway between the service I and net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete m be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box Subtotal and net on the same side, alternates tosses to the athlete's forehand and backhand sides. Each toss should land at a point which is both halfway between the service line and baseline and halfway between the center service mark and singles sideline. The athlete m be allowed to return to the center mark before feeding the next ball. Each athlete is given ten attempts. 2) The athlete scores 10 points for hitting into the backcourt on or between the baseline, service line and singles sidelines. The athlete scores five points for hitting into either service box Subtotal				on ar bahind the he	acting The feeder	standing halfway hatwar	on the semiles I scores five points for hitting into either service box	and net on the same side both halfway between the	e, alternates tosse e service line and	es to the athle baseline and	te's forehand and t halfway between t	packhand sides. Eac ne center service ma	h toss should land at a ark and singles sideline.	point which is
				court on or between	n the baseline, servi	ce line and singles sidel	ines. The athle
nal Score	-						- · Subtotal الــــال				